Attachment 05: Proposed Edits of Sec. 340. Religious Assembly.

ARTICLE 3. - USES AND USE STANDARDS

Sec. 18-340. Religious Assembly.

- 1. The regulations that relate to religious assembly uses address land use matters only and do not affect an individual's right to determine and exercise their religious beliefs.
- 2. The use of land, buildings, and facilities associated with a religious assembly use may be used for other accessory purposes in furtherance of the mission of the religious assembly use. These additional uses, such as offices of non-profit groups, child care day centers or private schools, require a conditional use permits if the requirement is specified in that district or zone.
- In non-residential districts or zones, any parsonage or rectory must be located in conjunction with, on the same lot as, and within the same structure as a religious assembly use.
