

The rendering below displays three of the 33 ChargePoint CP6000 charging stations to be installed. Each unit will be mounted on concrete foundation to support the weight and operational requirements of the charging equipment. Protective steel bollards will be installed around each station to ensure impact resistance and safety.

