DIVISION 3. USE STANDARDS

The following uses are specifically regulated as set forth herein.

Section 18-306.5 Accessory Living Unit (ALUs) - Attached

1. No ALU may operate in the Town of Vienna unless the property owner has first been issued a permit by the Department of Planning and Zoning, in conformance with all provisions of this chapter.
2. The property owner must reside in either the principal residence or the accessory living unit.
3. An ALU may not be established as a separate property than that of the principal residence.
4. The maximum size of an ALU is 800 square feet or 40% of the floor area of the principal residence, whichever provides a lesser amount of floor area. An amount greater than 800 square feet may be approved by the Board of Zoning Appeals as a conditional use, in accordance with Section 18-824; but under no circumstance may the ALU cover more than 1,000 square feet or 40% of the floor area, whichever provides a lesser amount of floor area.
5. No ALU shall contain more than two bedrooms.
6. An ALU must have areas for living, sleeping, eating, preparing food, and sanitation (i.e., bathroom). Such areas may be established as distinct from those of the principal residence.
7. An ALU may not be issued a permit, nor operate, if a Family Day Home is permitted at the property.
8. An ALU may be located only within or sharing at least one wall with the principal structure, including a second story above an attached garage, and is subject to all development standards. A floor plan showing the location and dimensions of the proposed ALU in relation to the principal structure must be submitted prior to occupancy.
9. Any new external entrance proposed for an ALU must be located on the side or rear of the dwelling.
10. Any ALU must meet the applicable regulations for zoning, building, safety, health, and sanitation.
 - A. For properties converting an existing structure into an ALU, inspections are required prior to occupancy. Inspections shall include verifying the structure complies with building codes, electrical, plumbing, fire safety, and other relevant requirements.
 - B. For properties incorporating an ALU into new construction, inspections will be conducted as part of the regular building inspections prior to occupancy.
11. An ALU must receive a Certificate of Occupancy before it may be established and occupied as a residence. Owner must submit an Owner-Occupancy Affidavit as part of the application for occupancy, including name of property owner, address of property, a statement that owner will reside in one of the units as their primary residence, and acknowledgement of penalties for providing false information or non-compliance.

12. Property owners are required to submit a Residency Compliance Form to the Zoning Administrator every two years to affirm compliance.
13. Upon transferring ownership of the property, the new owner shall submit a new Owner-Occupancy Affidavit to the Zoning Administrator within 30 days of acquiring the property. The affidavit must include whether the ALU will continue to be used in compliance with the conditions of the previous approval or whether it will not be used. Failure to submit the affidavit will render the ALU permit null and void. An ALU may not be used as a short-term rental unit. As such, no occupancy agreement, whether through a formal lease or an informal agreement, is permitted for a period of fewer than 30 days.
14. The Zoning Administrator or their authorized agent shall have the right to inspect any property with an approved Accessory Living Unit (ALU) or refer concerns as appropriate to Fairfax County, as part of the bi-annual renewal process or as necessary to verify compliance with the ALU regulations.
 - C. The Zoning Administrator or their agent shall provide the property owner with a minimum of 7 days written notice prior to any routine or bi-annual inspection.
 - D. In cases where the Town has reason to believe a violation is occurring, the notice period may be reduced to 48 hours.
 - E. The property owner shall make provisions to allow inspections of both the principal residence and the accessory unit during reasonable hours (e.g., between 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM) upon prior notice.

Section 18-307 Adult Business

1. In addition to the standards for conditional use permit contained in §18-824, the Board of Zoning Appeals shall be prohibited from issuing the said use permit if:
 - A. The location abuts a residentially zoned or residentially used property;
 - B. The use is located closer than 1,000 feet to the property of any church, school, or child care center; and
 - C. No two adult businesses may be located closer than 1,000 feet to each other.
2. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in any way to limit the application of any state statute relating to obscenity or relating to distribution of materials to juveniles.
3. Wide-angle mirrors and/or video systems must be used to provide the manager or operator of the adult business with continuous monitoring of all areas of the establishment.

Section 18-308 Adult Day Support Center

An adult day support center may not operate until a license has been granted by the appropriate Commonwealth of Virginia agency.

Section 18-309 Agriculture, Enclosed

1. Enclosed agriculture shall not include the keeping of any animals, insects, or bees.
2. This use shall not result in the emission of any sounds, odors, or smoke beyond the property line in excess of what is permitted under a normal commercial use.
