

Most colors are a combination of two colors from the sample provided. The numbered color key attached provides the formula for the colors within $1/8^{\text{th}}$ of a shade.