Zoning Commission

127 Center ST. S

Vienna VA 22180

Dear Zoning Commission,

My name is Tania Giviani-Faris. My spouse (Kambiz Faris) and I have been the owners of Happy Younglings Family Daycare. We have been in business for over nine years. The Town of Vienna has been our hometown for more than thirty years. We have two beautiful children whom are now part of the Madison High School community. We are proud of providing a warm nurturing environment for our own children and all the children in our care. We believe that children are natural learners. They are born with curiosity which encourages them to question, explore, and discover the world around them. We offer activities based on real life experiences and curriculum that fosters social, creative, physical, and cognitive skills, fulfilling the needs of the child to develop as a whole person.

As a small and a successful business in the Town of Vienna for more than nine years, we are requesting an application approval for a Conditional Use Permit for an additional two children to our existing license of eight.

Respectfully and thank you in advance,

Tania and Kambiz Faris

Background

As my memory allows me, the love of caring for children rooted in my soul since I was six years old. At that young age, I loved to help out my relatives babies at all family gatherings. Feeding the babies, rocking them to sleep were the greatest joy for me.

After graduating from high school, I continued my education in Bachelor of Arts. During my education, some of my favorite subjects were social studies and human development. My career involved in retail management. Employee and customer satisfaction were the core of my focus. Our daycare business came about after my first child was born. I felt the need to stay home to raise him. When he turned six, I tried to return to old management position. The company informed me that I could not leave everyday at two o'clock to be with my children when they came home from school.

My family needed my extra income to survive. After studying various options, opening a family daycare made the most sense for my family. I could be home with my children and could provide the much needed income. We started small with just immediate neighbors and before long the word of mouth came into play. Today, our daycare (Happy Younglings) is one of the top reviewed and praised among "Vienna Moms INC".

Since the year 2002 (the year my first child was born), I have been dedicating my time to educate myself in all aspects of early childhood developments through research. I attended more than one-hundred and seventy hours of Fairfax County trainings that have helped to polish my learnings since Happy Younglings establishment. I am MAT and Adult/Pediatric CPR and First Aid certified.

Parking & Proposal

In our circle, each family has their own driveways to park one or two cars. Few others park at the curbs. Our driveway fits three cars and the closest curb has a capacity of two cars. The total parking spots offered to our customers by us is five cars. The total of public parkings available for our customers (after every neighbor is parked) are four. In addition, we have decided to express our gratitude to our supportive neighbors by expanding our driveway and add two more parking spaces to our existing driveway. We have received our permit from Town of Vienna for driveway expansion and it will be starting as soon as we find the right contractor to do the job. Please note that our drop-offs and pick-ups are staggered from 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and there will be seven to eleven available parkings for non-resident guests to be used for a short period of time. Our proposal will make the arrivals and dismissals for both neighbors and customers smoother than ever.

Employees

We have two employees whom assist us from Monday to Friday all year around. Our full-time employee works from 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. She is certified MAT (EPEN), Adult/Pediatric CPR and First Aid. She also completes sixteen hours of child development trainings through OFC every year. She does not park her vehicle on Yeonas Circle and walks to the daycare daily.

Traffic Calculation

Our daycare is located in a cul-de-sac with the minimal traffic. The location is very safe for children drop-offs and pick-ups. Our daily drop-offs and pick-ups are staggered.

Morning drop-offs start from 7:30 and end at 8:30/8:50. Our customers park on our driveway and the front curb of our home and leave less than five minutes. Our pick-ups start from 4:30 to 5:50/5:55. To reduce the parking duration in our cul-de-sac, we make sure to have the child/children ready at the main entrance (inside) for the late pick-ups. We have also requested our customers to park at designated areas to express our gratitude to our neighbors.

Vienna, VA

5.0 star rating on Yelp 8/14/2018

We highly recommend Happy Younglings.

Our oldest attended from about 14 months old to 3.5 years old and our youngest from 5 months old to 3 years old. We considered many childcare options from nannies to corporate centers to other in-home daycares and feel so blessed that we found Happy Younglings. We have been so impressed with how the owner, Tania, and her two assistants provide such a loving, kind, happy environment for the children in their care while also ensuring structure and appropriate play-based learning. The children eat healthy, delicious food (including breakfast, lunch, and snack) and play in a large playroom and outside in the home's enormous backyard. Inside, they play music, dance, do puzzles, paint, read books, play with trains, legos and other building tools, and engage in plenty of free play. Outside, they play on a playground appropriate for a wide age range, chase bubbles, play soccer, push toy lawn mowers, and study worms and leaves. The children learn all sorts of important social skills, including how to share and work out disagreements with their peers, politeness, gentleness with babies, following directions, and sitting with peers to eat.

Tania has a tremendous amount of experience to help with the various things that can be tricky with daycare. She works with parents to help breastfed babies accept bottles, to help kids nap on a schedule, to work through periods of separation anxiety, and to help kids learn toileting. She recognizes that kids develop at different paces and she is receptive to parent requests and feedback. She is organized and makes daycare as easy on the parents as possible by announcing holidays and vacation time at the beginning of the year, rarely closing for weather (even when local schools are closed), and providing daily written reports for each child. She often sends photos taken during the day, especially on days when a child cries at drop off. Although both of our children went through brief periods of separation anxiety, the vast majority of the time they bounced down the stairs, eager to see their friends, Tania, and her assistants. At times it was difficult to get them to leave! And even though they have now both left for preschool, they still love going back for visits. In short, Happy Younglings truly is a home-based, family-style setting in which the providers truly love the children and, as a result, the children flourish in their care.

8/14/2018 · Updated review

Our second son just finished up almost three years at Happy Younglings so I wanted to update my review from 2016 to say that we continue to love Tania and her team. Both of my sons consider Happy Younglings a second home and Tania, her assistants, and the other children a second family. I highly recommend Happy Younglings to anyone looking for a warm, loving environment for their child.

Hi there,

This is the review that I was going to post....can you tell me if this is ok? Happy to make any changes you think would be good bc I want to make sure this review conveys to everyone how amazing you guys are! Happy Younglings is one of the best home based daycares in our area. Our son has been there since he was 18 months and we cannot be happier. We checked out many daycares and we noticed that all daycares have two sides – the administration and the actual childcare – and this daycare excels in both. As for the childcare, they are really focused on developing the complete child and help each child build life skills, social skills, and academic skills. They do a wonderful job of helping each child usher in their milestones at their own rate and on their own timetable with immense love and patience. The owner Tania and her wonderful assistants treat our son (and the others in their care) with more love and encouragement than we could ask for. They are calm, loving and patient with all his needs and asks. As for the administration, they have a great facility, are really well organized and very flexible to help parents as much as possible. They keep their daycare very bright and clean and stocked with all the best/latest toys and learning tools for the kiddos. They are diligent in setting their holiday calendar over a year in advance, they send reminders on all payments, they send weekly menus on Monday am and they send daily sheets on what your child did that day. Overall, they make it as easy for parents as possible. So if you are looking for a daycare now or are planning to look for one in the future, get on their waitlist now!

I posted my review, I copied it below for you reference.

Our 18 month old daughter has been enrolled at Happy Younglings since we moved to Vienna, when she was 7 months old. Over the last 11 months she has thrived in the care of Tania and her team. Tania (owner) is attentive, caring and truly loves all of the children she cares for. We have always felt that communication between parents and the staff at Happy Younglings was a priority. I have felt our concerns and desired have always been listened to and respected. As a parent, I feel confident dropping our daughter off every morning that she is in a loving and safe environment.

Anyone need childcare soon? Our wonderful in-home daycare will have a spot opening at the end of the month because a full time preschool spot just opened for our 3.5 year old. My older son has been there since he was 14 mo and my younger son started at 5 months and will continue.

First, a bit of practical stuff: It is located near Cunningham Park, on a cul de sac near Kingsley, between Park and Cottage. It's open 7:30-5, later than many in-home daycares. There are 8 kids with one full time caregiver and two assistants (one in the morning and one in the afternoon).

We LOVE Happy Younglings. We had nannies for our son's first year and then visited a TON of daycares and read even more reviews and inspection reports before choosing Happy Younglings. It is exactly the environment we wanted -- warm, consistent, and home-like, with just the right amount of socialization for toddlers. In fact, it's been so perfect that the times when we've thought about moving, it is the idea of finding a comparable daycare that causes me to panic. It is warm, consistent, and home-like.

The kids spend a ton of time in the enormous backyard (it rivals many playgrounds!), dance to music, do art projects, and learn in the best way possible -- through play. The owner and lead caregiver, Tania, is a wonderful combination of loving, fun, and firm and her two assistants (one in the morning and one in the afternoon) are so warm and affectionate that my boys are almost always happy to go there and sad to leave. Our sons have both learned incredible manners there -- basic elements of politeness that I'm not sure we could have taught them at home without the group setting. My older son has made friendships that I hope will last a lifetime (as have his parents!) and I'm betting my younger son will as well.

Perhaps most importantly, I always feel confident leaving my boys in their care. As just one example of how careful they are with the children, my older son is allergic to peanuts and milk. Happy Younglings is nut free and also worked with us to make sure that in the 2+ years he was in their care our son never had a food allergy incident -- highly impressive given that he is allergic to something the other kids ate and drank daily. We are so grateful to Happy Younglings for the physical, emotional, and educational care they have given to both our boys during their time there.

Forgive the novel-like nature of this post. I remember how hard it was to pick a daycare, and can't help but give every bit of info I can think to share. Please feel free to PM me if you want to ask questions or chat by phone. We would love to help Tania find a new family to add to the group!

I'm sure there are other previous posts about this but I can't seem to find them. We are expecting our first child in early March and are looking into childcare options (which we would need starting in September). Any idea on average costs of nannies, or recommendations of in-home centers or other daycare centers that have been great? Also open to a nanny share just not sure how to go about finding information on those options. Thank you in advance!!! We are clueless 😊

Lauren Butcher Schuttloffel Where are you in Vienna? We love our in home daycare (near Kingsley and Park) and September is a great time to be looking for daycare or a nanny since there will be a crop of kids heading to preschool or kindergarten.

Lauren Butcher Schuttloffel Carly Humphrey Mitchell, it's called Happy Younglings and there is a website if you google. 8 kids, currently ranging from about 4 months to 3.5 years old, but the oldest is my son and he won't be there anymore when your baby starts. A primary caregiver plus two assistants (one in the morning and one in the afternoon). Happy to answer more questions or chat on the phone if you want to PM me.

One important thing when looking at daycares: you want places licensed by the state and the county. I always forget which is which, but one of them does drop in inspections and the reports are online. I do not recommend reading those reports while hormonal. Basically all will have violations. We ended up looking for ones with violations that aren't health and safety related. So paperwork out of date, rather than bleach stored right by baby's crib.

Hey, I will go back to work on 11/13 and we have our LO enrolled at kinderCare in Vienna. He will be 12 weeks by then. The more I think about that big facility the less comfortable I feel with that decision. Do... See More

Kathrin Herzog Went to happy younglings too and loved it
Unfortunately they are full

o Nicole Riegel Marko We are at Happy Younglings like Lauren and we are happy. It is great to be closer to home! So if you can find a place closest to you. That said, I would drive for a place I love. Most people seem to either prefer in-home or center...

A nanny for one may be cost prohibitive. The few folks I knew that did nanny share struggled with it except those that shared between family members.

I agree with Lauren though, it is very hard to choose a daycare when hormonal. Nothing was good enough for me and I felt sick making any sort of commitment. I wish you the best.

 9/22/2017 I can't say enough amazing things about Tania and Happy Younglings. When our first son was born I wasn't necessarily looking for an in-home daycare option, but Tania had great reviews so we set up a visit. Her home is always impeccably clean and her family and team are incredible. They have a giant and beautiful backyard and value outdoor time for the kids, which was one of the first things that drew us to HY. Tania and her staff treat the children as their own. Tania cooks amazing meals and runs a tight ship, while still remaining loving and flexible. They did wonders to get the kids on a schedule and our boys have far excelled next to their similarly-aged peers in learning their ABCs, colors, how to engage with other children, and manners. Our first son went through a very stubborn bottle rejection after I returned to work, and they were incredibly supportive and helped him through it. You can tell how much her alumni children and families love them, as they sometimes return to simply say hi and play at pickup time, and many participate in the annual Christmas party years after departing. She always has toys for every child, which is incredibly thoughtful. One review simply isn't enough. We have trusted our children's care and spirits with Tania and her team and they have treated them as their own. And in many cases, helped us to grow and succeed as parents along the way.

 8/16/2017 Happy Younglings provided a warm and supportive place for my 6month old baby. He clearly bonded with Tania and was very happy every day. It was clear she knew the regulations and safety requirements as well as the loving and educational aspects of running a home day care business. The children's play area was clean and fun with rotating toys. Highly recommend!

 We are deeply grateful for the love, care, and guidance Tania and her assistants Ghazaleh and Farideh have given our two children in this in-home daycare. Both our son and our daughter have attended Happy Younglings from when they were three months old to three years old. We could not have asked for a more nurturing and loving environment for them to grow in. They were given healthy breakfast, lunch, and snacks every day. The home is incredibly clean and safe. The children learn several age-appropriate skills through infancy to toddlerhood and to get them ready for preschool. There is a wonderful indoor play area and a large backyard with a swingset and sandbox under the shade of trees. The children have plenty of time to play outside on good weather days. Communication with Tania was always clear and timely so that we always knew our children were safe, healthy, and happy. We could not have asked for a better partner and experience these last six years in raising our children! Tania will always be a member of our family.
